

PRISONER MEDIATION TRAINING

Tuesday, April 22, 2025

1:00-4:00 p.m.

231 W. Lafayette Blvd.

Detroit, Michigan 48226

Theodore Levin Courthouse

Detroit Room

Join us for a free training program to be certified to serve as a mediator for the Eastern District of Michigan Pro Se Prisoner Early Mediation Program. Training will be provided by retired United States District Court Judge Victoria A. Roberts joined by: Paul Monicatti, Mediator & Arbitrator; Morgan Esters, Partner, Honigman LLP; Allan Soros, Assistant Attorney General for the State of Michigan; and Eric Lewis, Entrepreneur and ex-felon. More information on the mediation program can be found at <https://www.mied.uscourts.gov>, under Pro Bono Opportunities.

Victoria Ann Roberts, Retired Judge, United States District Court for the Eastern District of Michigan, joins JAMS in Detroit after 25 years of distinguished judicial service. Prior to her long tenure on the federal bench, Judge Roberts represented the United States, the state of Michigan, the Detroit Building Authority, the Economic Development Corporation for the City of Detroit, the American Motors Company, and individual plaintiffs and defendants in private industry. Throughout her legal career, Judge Roberts has blazed a trail for native Detroiters, women, African Americans, lawyers, judges and members of the public at large. She pioneered new initiatives in the federal courts and her community.

Register now at
<https://events.edmibar.org/event/prisoner-mediation-training-pro-bono-committee/>

Presented in partnership with

Federal Bar Association

Eastern District of Michigan Chapter