

In support of establishing a right to counsel for low-income tenants in Detroit, please join us for

DETROIT EVICTION RIGHT TO COUNSEL SUMMIT

MARCH 12, 2019, 8:45AM-5:00PM

[COCKTAIL RECEPTION TO FOLLOW PROGRAM]

IBEW, Local 58
1358 Abbott St., Detroit, MI 48226

REGISTER NOW: <https://DET-RTC-Summit.eventbrite.com/>

ABOUT

This all-day summit will bring together local and national leaders involved in the movement to address the eviction crisis. The event will feature multiple panel sessions that include low-income tenants facing evictions, city leaders, Detroit-area businesses, and experts from around the country. These panelists will share their experiences regarding the costs, benefits, and impacts of various efforts to reduce evictions and improve community and family stability.

ENTRANCE FEE

$20

[$5 for low-income Detroit residents, contact eventsrvp@uchcdetroit.org]

Includes light breakfast, box lunch, and cocktail reception after the event.
SPACE IS LIMITED!
No tickets sold at door.
Sponsorships available.
For more info: eventsrvp@uchcdetroit.org

Any funds received in excess of entrance fee will benefit the cause of establishing a tenant eviction right to counsel in Detroit.

CONVENERS

Damon J. Keith Center for Civil Rights

DETROIT BAR ASSOCIATION

Detroit Eviction Defense

JUSTICE MARILYN KELLY

YOUNG LAWYERS SECTION

Wolverine Bar Association

Women Lawyers Association of Michigan